

FIRST FRIDAY
NOVEMBER 7, 2008
OPEN HOUSE 6-9PM

TALYA JOHNSON

Meet Wasilla artist, Talya Johnson, and preview the first paintings in her “When we were Young” series, an ongoing endeavor to visually portray the light and wonder of youth. Her new line of Pocket Prints--fine art giclee prints in miniature, will also be featured.

Rife with layered symbolism, Tali’s paintings express colors, movement, and scents that are just beneath the surface of the ordinary. She is an associate member of Oil Painters of America, Alaska Artists Guild, and the Valley Arts Alliance. Talya is uniquely committed to making joy and value of original paintings more accessible to all art lovers.
